

If Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) is at your door:

- If ICE officer does not speak your language, ask for an interpreter.
- Do not let ICE into your home without a legal search warrant signed by a judge. A Warrant of Removal/Deportation from immigration authorities is not enough.
- If they do have a warrant, ask them to slip it under the door.
- If you feel unsafe, call the Camden County Police at 856-757-7400.

If Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) is at your door:

- If ICE officer does not speak your language, ask for an interpreter.
- Do not let ICE into your home without a legal search warrant signed by a judge. A Warrant of Removal/Deportation from immigration authorities is not enough.
- If they do have a warrant, ask them to slip it under the door.
- If you feel unsafe, call the Camden County Police at 856-757-7400.

If Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) is at your door:

- If ICE officer does not speak your language, ask for an interpreter.
- Do not let ICE into your home without a legal search warrant signed by a judge. A Warrant of Removal/Deportation from immigration authorities is not enough.
- If they do have a warrant, ask them to slip it under the door.
- If you feel unsafe, call the Camden County Police at 856-757-7400.

If you or a family member are detained, you still have the rights and resources to help you.

- Ask for an interpreter if you do not speak English.
- You may remain silent while you are detained and you do not need to answer questions except for your name.
- You do NOT have to sign anything and you can wait to sign documents with an attorney. Ask to see an attorney immediately.
- You have the right to a phone call. When you call your family, tell them the name of the location where you are detained and your Alien Registration Number, or "A" number.

If you or a family member are detained, you still have the rights and resources to help you.

- Ask for an interpreter if you do not speak English.
- You may remain silent while you are detained and you do not need to answer questions except for your name.
- You do NOT have to sign anything and you can wait to sign documents with an attorney. Ask to see an attorney immediately.
- You have the right to a phone call. When you call your family, tell them the name of the location where you are detained and your Alien Registration Number, or "A" number.

If you or a family member are detained, you still have the rights and resources to help you.

- Ask for an interpreter if you do not speak English.
- You may remain silent while you are detained and you do not need to answer questions except for your name.
- You do NOT have to sign anything and you can wait to sign documents with an attorney. Ask to see an attorney immediately.
- You have the right to a phone call. When you call your family, tell them the name of the location where you are detained and your Alien Registration Number, or "A" number.

CONOZCA — SUS — DERECHOS

Adaptación del ACLU

CONOZCA — SUS — DERECHOS

Adaptación del ACLU

CONOZCA — SUS — DERECHOS

Adaptación del ACLU