Camden, NJ 08104

Background: The new H. B. Wilson Elementary School will open for students on Tuesday September 8, 2009 with a parade from the old site (9th and Florence Streets) to the new site (2250 S. 8th Street). Governor Corzine, school officials, parents and guests will join the students, dancers and Camden High School "drum line" to open the new school. A brief program will follow the parade and ribbon cutting ceremony.

The building replaces a school one block away built in the 1930's. It will have "state of the art" classrooms and a fully functioning auditorium and cafeteria with energy saving devices throughout.
