Board of Education and Schools Development Authority to Hold Community Meeting

The NJ Schools Development Authority (SDA) in collaboration with the Camden City Board of Education will hold a community meeting on Thursday December 3, 2009 from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. at Cooper Hospital, Suite 401, 3 Cooper Plaza, Camden.

The topic of the community meeting will be the plans for the new Lanning Square Elementary School construction and an update on site cleanup activities associated with the plan.

Members of the community are invited to attend. For further information contact Bart Leff at 856-966-2649.

The New Lanning Square Elementary School will be built to replace a building that was demolished due to structural problems. Students are currently attending Feters and Broadway Elementary Schools.
