Myra I. DeJesus began her career with Camden City School District in 1993 as a School Law Enforcement Officer. In 2004 she transitioned to the Solution Center as a Special Investigator, where she serviced our students, parents, staff and community for 6 years. In 2010 she returned to the Security Department as an Operations Officer. In 2013 she became the School Safety Manager for Office of Safety and Security and continues to do so at this present time. Myra studied Criminal Justice and Liberal Arts. Myra is also certified as an instructor for Handle With Care and Handcuffing. Myra's affiliations include the following: Trustee for the Executive Board of Camden Corporate Watch, Active Member for Safety Committee for Boys and Girls Club, Camden Campus and active member for Faces of Change (Non-Profit Organization that serves the homeless, the addicted and the ladies of the night population in Camden City). She also served as Youth Director for 10 years at Calvary Assembly of God, her home church. Myra prides herself in protecting and serving the students, parents, and community of Camden City.
