ENGAGING STUDENTS • FOSTERING ACHIEVEMENT • CULTIVATING 21ST CENTURY GLOBAL SKILLS

- Engage as part of a whole class, in small groups, and with a partner, sharing the roles of participant, leader, and observer
- Identify the key points and supporting details of a text presented orally
- Restate the key information from a written text read aloud or information presented in multiple formats
- Integrate audio recordings and visual displays, when appropriate, to enhance the development of main ideas or themes

Reading

Students will be able to:

- Read texts closely (questioning, determining importance, looking for patterns) to make meaning of what was read
- Make personal connections, make connections to other texts, and/or make global connections when relevant
- Use quotes or references from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and/or when explaining inferences drawn from the text
- Refer to the text when drawing conclusions as well as when answering directly stated questions
- Identify the key details of a text that support the main idea
- Analyze the actions and thoughts of characters or speakers in texts, looking for patterns
- Determine the theme or main idea of the text
- Summarize the key points of a text
- Explain how the author supports main ideas in informational text with key details
- Read text closely to identify key details
- Explain how or why historical events, scientific ideas or “how to” procedures happened
- Use the text to support their answers

Reading

Formative Assessments during the Reading Comprehension section will include teacher anecdotal notes collected during whole group discussions, small group discussion and individual conferences.

Task 5-K-W-L Charts

Purpose: To activate prior knowledge and anticipate and confirm future learning

Grouping Format: Whole class instruction, individual reflections, questioning, and summarizing

Task 6-Reader's Theatre \(Black & Stave, 2007\)

Purpose: To develop oral language related to literature and content topics

Grouping Format: Whole class instruction, interactive small groups

ENGAGING STUDENTS • FOSTERING ACHIEVEMENT • CULTIVATING 21ST CENTURY GLOBAL SKILLS

- Determine the meaning of words and phrases in a text
- Identify words that allude to significant characters (i.e.: Herculean)
- Demonstrate the ability to determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text (e.g., figurative, academic, domain-specific)
- Identify metaphors and similes
- Identify how a text is organized to describe the structure (ie: chronological, comparative, cause/effect, etc)
- Identify reasons and evidence an author uses to support a claim
- Describe how an author uses proof to support a point in the text
- Read and understand a wide range of informational and literary texts within the grade level efficiently by the end of the year
- Develop the mature language skills and the conceptual knowledge needed for success in school and life by encountering appropriately complex texts
- Read texts with scaffolding as needed

Writing

Students will be able to:

- Write a conclusion related to the opinion presented
- Compose a story hook to engage the reader
- Establish the story's background or situation
- Introduce a narrator and/or characters
- Purposefully arrange events to make the story flow
- Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events
- Practice revising and editing skills
- Change word choice and sentence structure in writing to strengthen the piece

Writing

Formative assessments during the Writing section will include teacher anecdotal notes collected during whole group discussions, small group instruction, and individual conferences as instruction is supplied on the writing process.

Task 7- Cornell Notes \(Pauk & Owens, 2010\)

Purpose: To facilitate listening and reading comprehension of class presentation content material

Grouping Format: Whole class instruction, individual learning

ENGAGING STUDENTS • FOSTERING ACHIEVEMENT • CULTIVATING 21ST CENTURY GLOBAL SKILLS

- Use a variety of graphic organizers (story frames, story mountains, story maps) to assist with developing a plan for writing
- Recognize spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors
- Employ strategies for correcting errors with assistance (conferences, check sheets, peer editing)
- Research information from print and digital sources
- Integrate information from personal experience
- Take notes and organize their information into categories
- List the sources used
- Use strategies for reading literary and informational text to investigate topics
- Refer to specific details in literary text when finding the similarities and differences between two or more characters, settings or events
- Explain how an author uses proof to support a point in informational text
- Prove each point with evidence from the text
- Combine information from several texts about the same subject in a written or oral response that demonstrates knowledge of the subject
- Produce numerous pieces of writing over various time frames
- Develop skills in research
- Reflect on and revise writing
- Develop a topic related to the content area they are writing about to reflect task, audience, and purpose

Language

Students will be able to:

- Recognize the purpose and function of prepositional phrases
- Identify prepositions and prepositional phrases when reading
- Use prepositional phrases in writing
- Spell grade-appropriate words correctly
- Use references as needed to aid in spelling

Task 8- H Charts

Purpose: To increase comprehension through scaffolding a comparison and contrast analysis of content texts

Grouping Format: Whole class instruction

ENGAGING STUDENTS • FOSTERING ACHIEVEMENT • CULTIVATING 21ST CENTURY GLOBAL SKILLS

- Identify similes and metaphors in text
- Explain the meaning of simple similes and metaphors
- Identify idioms, adages, and proverbs in text
- Explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs
- Determine synonyms and antonyms of words to show meaning
- Use 4th grade vocabulary fluently when discussing academic or domain-specific topics
- Choose the most accurate word when describing actions, emotions, or states of being
- Choose the most accurate word when discussing a particular topic
- Use knowledge of synonyms and antonyms to broaden vocabulary

Grouping Format: Whole class instruction, interactive small groups, learning partners

Language Development

These targets were chosen in consideration of the tasks students need to engage in as part of this unit. They also connect back to the CCSS for Language that students are expected to master and apply in both speaking and writing.

Building Oracy and Background Knowledge

Possible Sequence of Activities:

- Introduction of Concept and Question Board:
 - A concept/question board is a large, interactive bulletin, interactive bulletin board or space in the classroom where new questions and information can be gathered and shared with the entire class. The board is interactive and meant for the students and the teacher to use together. Additionally, students can keep a copy/ personalized one that they add to their notebooks.
- Jigsaw Reading and You are the Teacher:
 - Strategically divide students into groups, (reading level in English- ELP level or heterogeneous grouping). Have each group read a text together and complete a graphic organizer to record new information. The purpose of this activity is to further their understanding of the Big Idea, How can animal behavior be like human behavior?

Formative Assessment: See Task 1-3 in formative assessments described above and teacher anecdotal notes collected during whole group discussions, small group instruction and individual conferences.

ENGAGING STUDENTS • FOSTERING ACHIEVEMENT • CULTIVATING 21ST CENTURY GLOBAL SKILLS

Note: Small group instruction and guided practice may be necessary for some students to be able to participate in a whole class read aloud (depending on student's language ability).

Small Group and Independent Reading Text Selection:

Texts for small group instruction and independent practice should be selected. These texts should allow students the opportunity to practice what is modeled.

"Animal Discoveries" Reading A-Z

"Wildlife Rescue" Reading A-Z

"Animal at the Extreme" Benchmark Universe

"Dogs work with elephants at the Pittsburgh Zoo" NEWSELA

These texts should be read aloud to the class and offer opportunities for the students to respond to the text in writing. Additionally, since these texts are read aloud to the class, it should be used to model all of the subsequently listed teaching points because it is familiar to all of the students.

Formative Assessment: See Task 5-7 in formative assessments described above and teacher anecdotal notes collected during whole group discussions, small group instruction and individual conferences.

Writing

Introductory Activity:

In small groups, have students create a bubble map listing the features of the informational text that they read during the reading comprehension phase of the books. Students should be encouraged to review the stories that they have read and identify the specific features.

Independent Writing

Writing about Reading

- Introduce a topic clearly
- Compose a clear thesis statement
- Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic
- Provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented
- Produce writing that is clear and understandable to the reader
- Focus the organization and development of a topic to reflect the task and purpose

Examples:

1. Write a letter home to your family describing your experience on the "frontlines".

2. Write a book review of one of the stories we have read; identifying specific details and including evidence to support how the experiences of the people during the civil rights movement.

Formative Assessment: See Task 8-10 in formative assessments described above and teacher anecdotal notes collected during whole group discussions, small group instruction and individual conferences.

Word Study and Fluency

Word study and fluency must focus on specific skills students need. Therefore, the following are possible strategies that illustrate how to take the context of reading and writing to focus on specific word study areas. Teachers need to be responsive to the needs of their particular students.

Possible Strategies to use:

- Key Sentence Frames
Purpose: To increase use of academic vocabulary
Grouping Format: Whole class instruction, interactive small groups, learning partner
- Open Sort Tasks
Purpose: To increase comprehension of academic vocabulary and increase higher level thinking skills
Grouping Format: Interactive learning partners
- Collaborative Dialogues
Purpose: To support the comprehension and use of academic language structures
Grouping Format: Teacher – Student dialogue

Formative Assessment: See Task 11 in formative assessments described above and teacher anecdotal notes collected during whole group discussions, small group instruction and individual conferences.

Summative Assessment

Summative Assessments are administered at this point, which is considered the end of the unit.

You have read literary and informational text about animal behaviors. (Students choose one task to complete as their Summative Assessment)

Independent Activity

- Use the Internet to research a specific animal and their behavior patterns in their specific habitat. Present the information in a multimedia presentation.

Imagine you are creating a documentary. Utilize specific information from readings that were discussed in the unit. First-person account of what you've observed as you've collected information for your documentary.

The Bridge: Strengthening Bridges between Languages

Language of instruction: English

Format: side by side, diagram, or así se dice

- Review the major concepts in the language of instruction.
- Elicit the major concepts from students in the language of instruction
 - a. List them on one side of the chart if doing side by side.
 - b. Add words and labels on existing picture or diagram (or draw and label a part of a picture)
 - c. As a sentence or paragraph
- Match the major concepts of the other language (or go sentence by sentence for the así se dice)
- Practice the terms (or reading the paragraph for an así se dice) in the new language
- Engage students in the metalinguistic analysis

Metalinguistic Focus

The Language and Reading Foundational Standards will be used as the metalinguistic focus for the Bridge. The following is a sample of possible foci for the Bridge. Teachers would use student writing, observations made by students, and the standards/learning targets found above for language and foundational skills as possible foci for the Bridge.

- Morphology – Example: Des/dis – students will identify affixes that have the same meaning in both Spanish and English
- Phonology o f/ph – students will identify the sound /f/ can be written ph in English but only f in Spanish
- Syntax and grammar o The use of accents in words is specific to Spanish

Beginning and end sounds

- b. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.
- c. Pose and respond to specific questions to clarify or follow up on information, and make comments that contribute to the discussion and link to the remarks of others.
- d. Review the key ideas expressed and explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion.
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.4.2
Paraphrase portions of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.4.3
Identify the reasons and evidence a speaker provides to support particular points.
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.SL.4.6
Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion); use formal English when appropriate to task and situation.

Reading

- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.4.1
Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.4.2
Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text.
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.4.3
Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character's thoughts, words, or actions).
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RI.4.4
Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including those that allude to significant characters found in mythology (e.g., Herculean).
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.4.6
Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.
- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.RL.4.9
Compare and contrast the treatment of similar themes and topics (e.g., opposition of good and evil) and patterns of events (e.g., the quest) in stories, myths, and traditional literature from different cultures.

Writing

- CCSS.ELA-LITERACY.W.4.1
